NEWSFLASH 74 November 2009

The 2010 National Workers Compensation Training Program is Now Available

QBE is proud to once again provide our intermediary partners and their staff a series of national Workers Compensation training courses where you can earn Continuing Professional Development (CPD) NIBA points and Certified Insurance Professional (CIP) ANZIIF points for participating.

The courses we run provide you with the support to administer and manage workers compensation within your business and more importantly for your clients.

Almost half of the courses that we offer are available free of charge and where a fee does apply, a discounted rate is offered to our Intermediary Partners.

There are 14 new courses in the new program for 2010, three of which you can receive points. To see all courses available next year and their descriptions go to:
