NEWSFLASH 80 March 2010

2010 Victorian WorkSafe Awards Open Soon!

It's time to register for this year's WorkSafe Victoria Awards which open next month. Your company can be recognised as a safety leader in 2010.

Receiving a safety award can increase the profile of you company as being a great place to work, and as being a supplier or service provider of choice for safety conscious, business to business work.

'WorkSafe is looking for companies and individuals that go the extra distance and whose innovation and leadership raises the standard of health and safety for everyone," WorkSafe's Acting Executive Director, Stan Krpan, said.'[1]

This year's categories include:

- Best OHS Management System
- Best Solution to an Identified Workplace Health and Safety Issue
- Best Health and Safety Initiative in a Small Business
- Health and Safety Representative of the Year
- The Health and Safety Committee of the Year

More information on the 2010 award categories, including videos provided by previous finalists go to worksafe.vic.gov.au/awards

To download your information pack and to register, visit worksafe.vic.gov.au/awards or to discuss a potential application call the WorkSafe Awards Coordinator on 8663 5033 or email awards@worksafe.vic.gov.au. Applications close 7 May.

QBE is happy to assist interested companies by providing advice about the content of your application and assistance with navigating through the process. Please email Mike Boyd, OHS & Risk Management Consultant if you would like more information.
